

Leave the Wisconsin No Call List alone. This does not rise to a constitutional level that limits a state's ability to be stricter than the federal government.